

Q. The Clothesline, Mission Waco

Organization Description: Mission Waco offers a variety of programs, and describes its mission as:

1. Provide Christian-based and relationship- based programs that empower the poor and marginalized
2. Mobilize middle-class Americans to become more compassionately involved among the poor
3. Seek ways to overcome the systemic issues of social injustice which oppress the poor and marginalized

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers sort, steam, and display clothing items. They also provide general customer assistance.

Volunteer Requirements: Volunteers must complete a volunteer application and liability form, supply one reference, be approved by the organization, pass a background check ($5 fee), and comply with other requirements specific to the program.

Training Provided: Training varies according to the type of commitment desired. Volunteers who will work directly with participants must attend an orientation.

Time Commitment: Preferably weekly/on a regular basis. Available times are Tuesday - Friday 10:30 am - 5:30 pm, and Saturday 9:00 am - 4:00 pm.

Group Volunteering: Groups are welcome to inquire about opportunities by visiting <http://www.missionwaco.org/indexmain.html> "Training & Mobilizing" - "Groups"

Recommended For: Those in the fields of social work or education (but not restricted to these majors)

Benefits: Volunteers can grow in faith and compassion through service while making valuable connections with others in the community.
