

How to ask for help from the MCC Library

- Help is available during regular library hours:
 - in person
 - by phone
 - by email
- Current library hours can be viewed online from the library home page.

McLennan Community College
Library

Hours | Contacts | Mission Statement | Ask a Librarian | MCC Home

Quick Links	Find & Search	Library Help
Select one	Where Do I Start?	Ask a Librarian
	Books (Online Catalog)	Online Library Orientation
	Articles, Research & More	Request Forms
	Resources by Subject	Works Cited & Sources
	Course eReserves	Glossary of Library Terms
	Online Periodicals	Library FAQs
	Hard Copy Periodicals	Tutorials & Guides
	Access from Home	Help with Library Use

- Email – Ask a Librarian online form
- Reference: (254)299-8323 for help with research, finding books and articles, or using the databases
- Circulation/Computer Assistance: (254)299-8325 for technical help, information about the library, fines, fees, or checking out books
- In Person: the Library is located in the Learning Technology Center, 3rd Floor
- Read our Library FAQs

Ask a Librarian (Online Form)

- To send an email to the library using the Ask a Librarian web form, go to the library home page
- Look on the lower right of the page and click on the Ask a Librarian button

Using the Ask a Librarian form

- Provide as much information as possible regarding your question.
- For research questions, please be detailed about the assignment and where you have already searched.
- Questions will only be responded to when the library is open and answered within 6 hours.

