The Board of Trustees of McLennan Community College (MCC), the legally constituted authority for the governance of the College, hereby adopts the following General Conduct Policy for the purpose of maintaining order and otherwise promoting the general interest, welfare, and purposes of the College.

Grievances or allegations related to discrimination claims shall be administered using the Discrimination Resolution Process (Policy F-V-s).

I: Definitions

A. The term "student" includes all persons taking courses at MCC, both full-time and part-time, pursuing credit and non-credit courses.

B. The term "faculty member" means any person hired by MCC to conduct classroom activities.

C. The term "MCC official" includes any person employed by MCC performing assigned administrative, professional, or staff responsibilities.

D. The term "member of the MCC community" includes any person who is a student, faculty member, staff member, or MCC official. A person's status in particular situations shall be determined by the President.

E. The term "MCC premises" includes all land, buildings, facilities, and other property in the possession of, owned, used, or controlled by MCC.

F. The term "organization" means any number of persons who have complied with the formal requirements for MCC recognition.

G. The term “Associate Director” means the MCC administrator authorized by the College to determine whether a student has violated the General Conduct Policy and to recommend imposition of sanctions.

H. The Term “Title IX Coordinator” means the MCC official responsible for monitoring the College’s implementation of Title IX, coordinating compliance, and investigating complaints of sex discrimination.

I. The term “Chief Compliance Officer” means the MCC official responsible for all compliance related policy concerns.

J. The term "MCC Board of Trustees" means the legally constituted authority for the governance and orderly operation of MCC.

K. The term "policy" is defined as the written regulations of MCC found in various documents, catalogues, and on the colleges website.

L. The term "service animal" pertains to dogs (or miniature horses) that have been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability.

M. The term “preponderance of evidence” is used to determine responsibility based on the evidence that the actions are “more likely than not” to have taken place.

II – Jurisdiction & Applicability

The policies herein set forth shall govern the conduct of all persons, including but not limited to, students, employees, visitors, and independent contractors, on the MCC campus or other property or facilities owned or used by the College (hereafter, “premises”) for any purpose, wherever situated, or while in attendance at or engaging in college-sponsored activities, wherever occurring. McLennan Community College retains the right to adjudicate alleged violations that occur prior to the individual leaving the College for any reason (such as withdrawal, transfer and/or graduation).

Persons violating any of these policies are subject to immediate removal and/or exclusion from MCC premises or activities. Such removal or exclusion shall be in addition to and not in lieu of further disciplinary action as set forth herein.

The General Conduct Policy may apply to off-campus behavior when such alleged conduct represents a danger to the safety of the person accused or others, or causes significant disruption to campus or the rights of others.

III - Assemblies or Other Group Activities

Any assembly or other group activity to be held on college premises must be conducted in accordance with the principles and policies set forth herein.
Any assembly or group activity, other than the regularly scheduled meetings of recognized student organizations, initiated, arranged, or promoted by students of the College must be approved in writing by the Vice President, Instruction and Student Engagement and/or designee in advance of its occurrence. A request to hold such assembly or group activity must be submitted in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the proposed date of occurrence. Such a request shall provide any reasonable information required by the College. Any such assembly or group activity which is part of the organized program of instruction of the College shall require advanced approval by the Vice President, Instruction and Student Engagement and/or designee. Any other assembly or group activity initiated, arranged, or promoted by an employee, group of employees, or person(s) not employed by the College, shall require advanced approval by the Vice President, Instruction and Student Engagement and/or designee.

Formal approval of any assembly or group activity does not relieve its organizers or participants of any responsibilities regarding general conduct stated herein.

IV - Visitors and Guests

Any people who are not students or employees of the College, while on the premises of the College are considered visitors, and shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the principles and policies stated herein. Violators are subject to removal from the premises and/or appropriate legal proceedings.

Visitors, including but not limited to the spouse or children of students, will generally not be admitted to classrooms or laboratories. Faculty members who desire an exception to this regulation should discuss the circumstances with the appropriate division chair. In any case, where the appropriate division chair has approved an exception, the faculty member may still, at any time, remove the visitor from a classroom in the interest of the learning environment.

Students or employees of the College who bring a visitor to the College may not leave the visitor unattended on campus if the visitor is a minor.

V - Rights and Responsibilities

A. General Statement

Students, employees, visitors, and independent contractors are expected to obey the regulations of the College and to conduct themselves in a socially acceptable manner.

B. Responsibilities for Administration of Conduct for Employees, Visitors, and Independent Contractors

The President or designee shall ensure enforcement of college conduct regulations as they relate to visitors, employees, and independent contractors.

Employees shall comply with the standards of conduct set out in this policy and with any other policies, regulations, and guidelines that impose duties, requirements, or standards attendant to their status as college employees. Violations of any policies, regulations, and guidelines may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment or suspension with or without pay.

The Non-Faculty Investigation Procedures (Policy F-V-c) shall be followed for non-faculty contractual personnel and the Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure (Policy F-III-a) shall be followed for faculty contractual personnel.

Inquiries regarding discrimination should be directed to the Chief Compliance Officer or the Section 504/ADA Title II Coordinator. Grievances related to discrimination claims shall be administered using the Discrimination Resolution Process (Policy F-V-s).

C. Responsibilities for Administration of Student Conduct

The Office of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion shall be responsible for student conduct. The Office of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion shall be responsible for the disposal and referral of individual cases as may properly come before him/her and recommending the formulation and revision of policies and procedures relating to student conduct.

D. Rights and Responsibilities of Students, Employees, Visitors, and Independent Contractors

1. These policies are based upon the principle that the College must safeguard, on college premises and in college affairs, the basic freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States of America. Equally important is the principle that the exercise of these freedoms requires respect for the rights and freedoms of others. Interference with the lawful and orderly use or enjoyment of college premises, facilities, and programs will not be permitted.

2. Students, Employees, Visitors, and Independent Contractors have the following responsibilities:
   a. To be familiar with published regulations and comply with them.
b. To act according to standards of common decency and socially acceptable behavior.

c. To respect the rights and property of others.

E. Family Educational Right and Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA protects the privacy of student education records, including personally identifiable information derived from student conduct records. Generally, schools must have written permission from a student in order to release any information from a student’s education record. FERPA allows schools to disclose student records, without consent, in situations including, but not limited to school officials with legitimate educational interest, other schools to which a student is transferring, to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena, to parents when there is a health or safety emergency involving the student, to parents when the student has committed a disciplinary violation with respect to use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance and the student is under 21 years of age at the time of the disclosure, to the victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a nonforcible sex offense concerning the final results of a disciplinary Hearing.

VI - Proscribed Conduct

A. General Policy

Freedom of discussion, inquiry, and expression is fostered by an environment in which the privileges of citizenship are protected, and the obligations of citizenship are understood. Accordingly, the MCC community has developed standards of behavior pertaining to students, student organizations, visitors, and employees. All are subject to disciplinary action according to the provisions of the General Conduct Policy. MCC may enforce its own conduct policies and procedures when a person’s conduct directly, seriously, or adversely impairs, interferes with, or disrupts the overall mission, programs, or other functions of the College. College conduct proceedings may be instituted against a person alleged to have violated the General Conduct Policy. Proceedings under the General Conduct Policy may be carried out prior to, independent of, concurrent with or following civil or criminal proceedings. The standard of proof used in college conduct proceedings is the preponderance of evidence. College officials respect the rights and responsibilities of visitors, employees, and students and shall consider each alleged violation of college policy and each alleged violation of federal, state, and /or local law on a “case-by-case” basis and shall further attempt to initially use educational options and subsequent intervention and /or prevention options to assist visitors, employees, and students.
B. Misconduct

Any person found to have committed the following misconduct while defined as a visitor, employee, or student is subject to disciplinary sanction(s), condition(s), and /or restriction(s). Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

14. Abuse, Misuse or Theft of College Information Resources

Unauthorized use of MCC information resources is prohibited, and may be subject to criminal prosecution in addition to disciplinary sanctions, conditions and/or restrictions.
pursuant to the General Conduct Policy. “Information resources” means procedures, equipment and software, regardless of location, that are employed, designed, built, operated, and maintained to collect, record, process, store, retrieve, display, and transmit college information, and associated personnel, including consultants and contractors, regardless of whether the personnel are employed by the College or retained as independent contractors. Usage of MCC information resources may be subject to security testing and monitoring, and users have no expectation of privacy except as otherwise provided by applicable privacy laws.

Abuse, misuse, or theft of college information resources includes, but is not limited to the following:

a. Unauthorized use of MCC information resources including, but not limited to: private information and passwords, the unauthorized sharing of private information or passwords with individuals who otherwise have no authority to access MCC information resources.

b. Use of MCC information resources for unauthorized or nonacademic purposes including, but not limited to: illegal access, attempted or actual unauthorized accessing, copying, transporting or installing programs, records, data, or software belonging to the College, another user, or another entity, and/or illegal activity (e.g., sharing copyrighted materials or media).

c. Purposely engaging in activity that may harass, intimidate, threaten, endanger, or abuse others, or acts in a manner that impedes, interferes with, or disrupts any MCC authorized activity including but not limiting to: furnishing false information and/or withholding information, misuse of authority by virtue of one’s leadership position, or falsely identifying oneself as a representative of MCC on social networking sites or other public forums.

d. Attempted or actual breach of the security of another user’s account and/or computing system, depriving another user of access to college computing and/or networking resources, compromising the privacy of another user or disrupting the intended use of computing or network resources.

e. Attempted or actual use of MCC’s computing and/or networking resources for personal, political, or commercial purposes.

f. Access, creation, storage, or transmission of material deemed offensive, indecent, or obscene (as defined by Chapter 43 of the State of Texas Penal Code on Public Indecency). Exceptions may be made for academic research where the aspect of the research has been explicitly approved by MCC official processes for dealing with academic ethical issues. Discovery of explicit material, including pornography, on any college-owned information resource or networks must be reported to the Campus Police immediately.

g. Attempted or actual destruction, disruption, or modification of programs, records or data belonging to or subscribed to by the College or another user or destruction of the integrity of computer-based information.

h. Attempted or actual use of computing and/or networking facilities that interferes with the normal operation of MCC’s computing and/or networking systems; or through such actions, causing a waste of such resources (e.g., people, capacity, computer).

i. Intentional “spamming” of students, faculty, or staff (defined as the sending of unsolicited and unwanted emails to parties with whom one has no existing business, professional, or personal acquaintance).

j. Use of computing and/or network resources to engage in an activity that may harass, threaten, or abuse others.

k. Allowing another person, either through one’s personal computer account, or by other means, to accomplish any of the above. Users who share their access with another individual shall be responsible and held liable for all usage of their account.

l. Per Texas Government Code, MCC information resources are strategic assets of the State of Texas that must be managed as valuable state resources. As such, use of MCC information resources is subject to college operating policies and other applicable laws. Unauthorized use is prohibited, usage may be subject to security testing and monitoring, misuse is subject to criminal prosecution, and users have no expectation of privacy except as otherwise provided by applicable privacy laws.

m. Engaging in acts that contravene the mission and goals of the College or acts that expose the College to liability.

15. Vehicles, Skateboards, Rollerblades, Scooters, Bicycles or Similar Devices

a. Use of skateboards, rollerblades, scooters, bicycles, or other similar devices in the College’s buildings or on college premises in such a manner as to constitute a safety hazard or cause damage to the College or personal property.

b. Traffic obstruction. Obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on College premises or at College sponsored or supervised activities.
c. Reckless driving. Driving in a manner that recklessly endangers the health and/or safety of oneself or others. Driving includes, but is not limited to, vehicles, bicycles, skateboards, scooters, and other mobile devices.

16. Tobacco

McLennan Community College does not permit the use of tobacco and vaping products on the College campus, except in personal vehicles. The use of these products is also prohibited in college owned, rented, or leased vehicles.

The term “tobacco and vaping products” includes cigarettes, chew, vape pens, e-cigarettes, cigars and any other form of tobacco or vaping.

Please refer to the Tobacco Products Policy (E-XXIII) for further guidance. See https://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXIII.pdf

19. Abuse of the Discipline System

a. Failure of a visitor, employee or student to respond to a notification to appear before the Associate Director, or any other official involved in the conduct process, during any stage of a disciplinary proceeding. Failure to comply with or respond to a notice issued as part of a disciplinary procedure and/or failure to appear will not prevent the conduct process from proceeding, to include possible disciplinary action.

b. Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information in disciplinary proceedings.

c. Disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a disciplinary proceeding.

d. Filing an allegation known to be without merit or cause.
e. Discouraging or attempting to discourage an individual’s proper participation in or use of the disciplinary system.

f. Influencing or attempting to influence the impartiality of a member of a disciplinary committee prior to and/or during a disciplinary proceeding.

g. Harm, threat of harm, or verbal, physical or written intimidation, of any person prior to, during and/or after disciplinary proceedings.

h. Influencing or attempting to influence another person to commit an abuse of the discipline system.

i. Retaliation against any person or group who files grievances or provides evidence, testimony, or allegations in accordance with the General Conduct Policy.

j. Failure to comply with the sanction(s), condition(s), and/or restriction(s) imposed under the General Conduct Policy by a College official.

k. Complicity Attempting, aiding, abetting, conspiring, hiring, or being an accessory to any act prohibited by this code shall be considered to the same extent as completed violations.

20. Animals

a. Care: Failing to properly leash and control an animal or properly dispose of its organic waste.

b. Cruelty: Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly torturing or in a cruel manner killing or causing serious bodily injury to an animal, failing to provide necessary food, water or care for an animal in the person’s custody, abandoning unreasonably an animal in the person’s custody, transporting or confining an animal in a cruel manner, causing bodily injury to any animal without the owner’s consent, causing one animal to fight with another animal, or seriously overworking an animal. Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly attacking, injuring or killing an assistance animal or inciting another to attack, injure or kill an assistance animal.

This policy is not intended to prohibit:

i. Killing or injuring an animal within the scope of a person’s employment or furthering the goals of legitimate educational curriculum as designed and approved by the College.

ii. Killing or injuring an animal when the actor had a reasonable fear of bodily injury to self or other person by that animal.

c. Damage: Allowing a personal animal to damage College property.

d. Unauthorized Location: Taking or keeping an animal in college facilities without authorization. The only exception is service animals as outlined by American with Disabilities Act.

21. Bullying/Cyberbullying

Misconduct, on- or off-campus, which is defined by hostile or repeated behaviors that would be considered intimidating and that would cause distress to another person, where the behaviors are not protected by First Amendment guarantees.

a. Bullying. Defined as the use of repeated or severe verbal and/or non-verbal means in order to coerce or force a person to do something or to degrade a person, including, but not limited to, the use of taunting, teasing, or coercive language, pushing, punching, or creating threatening notes/letters/signs.

b. Cyberbullying. Defined as an act of bullying that takes place using different kinds of technology and social media. Using various types of electronic devices to inflict emotional and/or mental pain, and to degrade another person.
