

B. After School Care, ARC

Organization Description: The Arc of McLennan County describes its mission as, "expanding opportunities, care, and support for persons and families impacted by intellectual and developmental disabilities."

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers can help with the after-school program, which offers care and activities for children and young adults with developmental disabilities. This can involve reading to children, playing games, and just having fun with participants.

Volunteer Requirements: Volunteers must fill out an application at The Arc office, and pass a background check.

Training Provided: All necessary training is provided on-site.

Time Commitment: The after-school program is from 3:00-5:30 each school day.

Group Volunteering: Groups may volunteer together.

Recommended For: Students in the fields of Health, Human Services & Education, and others.

Benefits: Volunteers gain hands on experience in a number of fields, while meeting and forming positive relationships with new people, and doing activities that they already enjoy.
