

K. Animal Care, Fuzzy Friends Rescue

Organization Description: Fuzzy Friends Rescue describes its mission as helping animals receive the quality life, respect, and compassion that they are entitled to as living creatures. This is provided through shelter, food, and medical treatment to animals in need, and adoption to loving, responsible owners.

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers can work directly with animals in areas such as cleaning, exercising, grooming, adoptions, foster care, and are especially needed for socialization.

Volunteer Requirements: Volunteers should be 18 years or older, wear closed toe shoes, and register at the shelter.

Training Provided: Additional training is provided for Adoption Assistants, Foster Parents, and Fundraising assistance. Two hours of dog walk training is provided the first and third Wednesday of each month at 11:00 a.m.

Time Commitment: Regular commitments are preferred but not required.

Group Volunteering: Small groups of 3-4 are welcome to help socialize the animals in the "get acquainted" rooms.

Recommended For: Students in the fields of education, veterinary technology, and more.

Benefits: Volunteering at Fuzzy Friends Rescue allows volunteers to learn more about animals, their care, and their behavior, while gaining the satisfaction of helping animals find loving homes.
