

L. Family Selection/Support Committee, Habitat for Humanity

Organization Description: Waco Habitat for Humanity describes itself as a non-denominational Christian housing ministry, which works in partnership with low-income families to eliminate substandard and poverty housing in Waco, TX.

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers review applicants and interview potential homeowner families to determine if they meet Habitat for Humanity's non-discriminatory selection criteria. They also work with each family as they work their way through the Habitat program and become homeowners. They organize and conduct the New Homeowners College, a series of classes to help prepare families for home ownership.

Volunteer Requirements: Volunteers must be 18 or over.

Training Provided: All necessary training is provided.

Time Commitment: Time commitment varies.

Recommended For: Students in the fields of Social Work and others.

Benefits: Volunteers benefit by having fun doing community service, helping to preserve the environment, learning or teaching others about construction, meeting new and interesting people, and making a difference.
