

U. The Sustainable Garden, The Art Center of Waco

Organization Description: The Art Center of Waco is a non-profit gallery. The Sustainable Garden is a community garden located next to the building. The garden is tended to by volunteers, who grow fruits and vegetables which are donated to those in need.

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers help with planting seeds, watering, weeding, mulching, or harvesting.

Volunteer Requirements: Volunteers must be able to work outdoors and wear clothing they don't mind getting dirty. Keep in mind there may be stinging and biting insects sharing the area.

Training Provided: All training is provided as needed.

Time Commitment: One time commitments, monthly commitments, and weekly commitments are all welcomed. Volunteer times are very flexible.

Group Volunteering: Welcome! Call 254-772-8999 for more information.

Recommended For: Anyone who enjoys working outdoors and wants to either learn more about gardening, or share their expertise.

Benefits: Volunteers benefit by learning about the planting, maintenance, and harvesting of fruits and vegetables. They also get good exercise.
