

Tutoring, Communities in Schools Heart of Texas

Organization Description: CIS-HOT seeks to surround students with a community of support and empower them to stay in school and achieve in life.

Volunteer Duties: Volunteers can help by spending 1 hour a week mentoring a child at either an elementary, middle, or high school campus, at the Waco Center For Youth, or Klaras Center For Families.

Volunteer Requirements: In order to mentor, volunteers must fill out an application, provide three references, be at least 18 years of age, and pass a background check.

Training Provided: Training provided by CIS-HOT Mentoring staff.

Time Commitment: 1 hour per week at various times.

Group Volunteering: Groups and volunteer teams are welcome.

Recommended For: All students, but especially those in the fields of mental health, criminal justice, psychology, sociology, human services, education, and social work.

Benefits: Mentors gain insight into working with children, while meeting new people, and forming positive relationships.
