

Music

Why Music?

McLennan's Music Department offers a wide variety of engaged learning opportunities for both music and non-music majors to:

- Perform solos – including operatic and musical theatre roles
- Perform with ensembles
- Conduct rehearsals
- Present research
- Observe in public school classrooms
- Compete in regional and state competitions

Why McLennan?

McLennan Faculty

McLennan's music faculty is passionate about performance and teaching. Student musicians, both majors and non-majors alike, will encounter professional musicians and teachers who collaborate, create, teach, and share performances with their students and audiences.

- Many have doctoral degrees.
- Students are their focus.
- They are national and international performers, authors, clinicians, and adjudicators.

Music Courses that Transfer to Colleges & Universities*

- Choral and Instrumental Ensembles
- Weekly Lessons and Studio Classes
- Music Literature and Theory
- Class Piano
- Diction (Italian, French, German, and English)

*Students who complete the Music-Field of Study degree can transfer as music majors into public four-year colleges and universities across the nation. Transfer majors include: Music Education, Performance, Music Therapy, Musicology, and Theory/Composition.

Scholarships & Financial Aid

Music Ensemble Scholarships are available for band and choir offering free tuition for up to 12 hours. See contacts below, or visit www.mclennan.edu/music/scholarships for details.

Numerous other McLennan scholarships are also available. Visit www.mclennan.edu/scholarships for more information.

If you are interested in applying for financial aid, please complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov by June 1 for the following academic year. For more information about financial aid, go to www.mclennan.edu/financial-aid or call McLennan's Highlander Central at 254-299-8622.

Multiple resources are available to help students with financial concerns. Many of these are "stackable," which means you can earn several awards to reduce the total cost of college.
