I have engaged with MCC in each of my professional roles in Waco. As superintendent at Rapoport Academy Public School, we worked closely with MCC through the Early College High School program. My son currently takes dual credit courses at MCC as a sophomore at Rapoport Academy. As the Executive Director of Prosper Waco, I supported implementation of the Project Link college access program and was a member of the MCC Child Studies advisory committee. In my current role, I oversee operation of Waco Family Medicine's community clinic at MCC. I have also been a member of numerous committees in Waco. I value MCC as a key vehicle of educational equity and social mobility. MCC provides access to a wide range of educational programs to every individual in our community across all demographics, and in doing so provides opportunity for all residents of McLennan County.
