

May 16, 2023

Susan Copeland
Director, RSVP
McLennan Community College

Dear Ms. Copeland,

Please accept my sincere thanks and congratulations for your more than 30 years of committed service to AmeriCorps. It is leaders like you who set generations of Americans up for success through your selfless service to others.

As the years have brought changes to the RSVP program's name, its oversight systems and structures, sponsors, and even AmeriCorps itself, your faithfulness and dedication have ensured the continued success of this program for more than three decades.

Whether AmeriCorps Seniors volunteers are helping a student learn how to read, distributing meals to local families, or volunteering to help a neighbor, it is people like you who bring Americans from all walks of life together to solve community challenges.

As AmeriCorps prepares to celebrate its own 30th anniversary, it is an honor to celebrate your contributions and accomplishments as an AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP program director. You are a model of service and have changed countless lives, for the better.

Thank you for your perseverance, heart for service, and dedication to your community and AmeriCorps.

In service,

Michael D. Smith
Chief Executive Officer
AmeriCorps

Michael D. Smith – CEO, AmeriCorps
Susan Copland - Project Director, RSVP
Joe Arrington - Division Chair, Human Services and Education
Frank Graves - Dean, Workforce & Public Service

AmeriCorps
Seniors

